

ADVANCED COURSE ON ICSID ARBITRATION

TAUGHT BY FRANCISCO ABRIANI
LEGAL COUNSEL AT THE ICSID SECRETARIAT

Fri, 24.01.20; Sat, 25.01.20; Fri, 31.01.20; Sat, 01.02.20 at the University of Cologne. Please visit www.iilcc.com for further information

The courses on international investment law represent a special offer of the University of Cologne to students with an interest in international economic law and international dispute settlement. Every semester, the International Investment Law Centre Cologne (IILCC) holds two introductory courses taught in German on International Investment Law and Investor State Dispute Settlement. As of the winter semester 2018/2019, the Centre is glad to announce the establishment of the Advanced Course on ICSID Arbitration.

The Course will be taught in English by Mr. Francisco Abriani, who is a Legal Counsel at the ICSID Secretariat with extensive experience in the conduct of arbitral proceedings under ICSID rules. Prior to joining ICSID in 2015, he worked as an associate with an international law firm in Paris and New York.

The course will provide a detailed and practical insight on investment arbitrations conducted under ICSID rules and will be held on the following dates: Fri, 24.01.20; Sat, 25.01.20; Fri, 31.01.20; Sat, 01.02.20 at the University of Cologne.

Limited places are available to students and young practitioners not enrolled at the University of Cologne. Interested candidates can apply for a free of charge participation by sending an email indicating their previous exposure to international arbitration at iilcc-events@uni-koeln.de.